

HOW TO FOLD A POCKET SQUARE

ONE CORNER UP

The fold that shows one corner is the most common way to fold a pocket square. It is especially well suited for pocket squares made from a thicker linen type fabric, as this type of material can be stiffened using a little bit starch, and ironed to keep it straight. The one corner up pocket square fold is well suited when wearing a necktie.